Although changes in science and technology have been extremely rapid during the past few years, the changes in society have been just as rapid — perhaps, however, not as noticeable.

Women's "lib," race relations, the lowering of the age of majority and the advancement of civil rights all place a burden of commitment on you. Your adaptability and maturing, particularly over the past year, gives promise to your successful adjustment to an increasingly complex world.

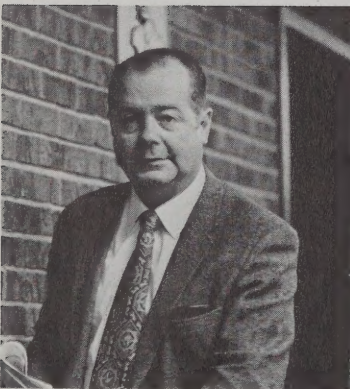

My best wishes for your future!

In Memoriam

THEADORE J. BEATRICE

Medford High School was deeply saddened by the passing of Mr. Beatrice last October.

As a teacher of French in the Foreign Language Department since 1970, he was beloved by his students and consistently enjoyed an excellent rapport with the young who were exposed to his teaching and his counselling. Further, he was held in high esteem by his professional peers.

Mr. Beatrice had served with the United States Army and, during this service, his services were identified with the Military Intelligence Division for six years.

A native of Newton and a graduate of the University of Massachusetts, Mr. Beatrice will be remembered with affection and respect for his educational contributions to the students at Medford High School during his tenure of teaching. His deep and personal concern for his students and his professional immersion in his work came all too quickly at an end with his passing last fall.

Retirements

A dedicated and respected teacher, Mr. Cedric Minas taught at Medford High School from November, 1939, until his retirement in October, 1972. Mr. Minas came to the Medford system with an L.L.B. (1933) and an L.L.M. (1937), both degrees earned from Boston University. From 1942 to 1945, Mr. Minas served in the United States Navy during World War II. Mr. Minas also served as President of the Medford Teachers Club for two terms and has lectured at Northeastern University for over 25 years. His classes in economics and law will long be remembered by those countless numbers of students who came under Mr. Minas' expertise at Medford High School.

“Seventy years of dedicated service, may you enjoy your well-earned rest.”

A teacher of inexhaustible enthusiasm, Mr. Alfred A. Zirpolo, leaves a void at Medford High School that will be very hard to fill. A teacher in the Medford system since 1936, with most of those years spent at Medford High School, Mr. Zirpolo possessed an A.B. and an A.M., both degrees earned at Boston College. After teaching in the Business Education Department for many years, Mr. Zirpolo became instrumental in the formation of the Distributive Education Department here at the high school. A staunch, enthusiastic advocate of the DECA program, Mr. Zirpolo worked unceasingly for its continued success.

Class Advisors

A school as large as ours has taught us to appreciate and accept guidance and advice. Miss LaHaise and Mr. Mahoney have more than fulfilled their roles as our advisors. They have given their time and energy to help our class work together. Through our chaotic first year at the new high school right through to our chaotic last weeks of school, they have been there — concerned and enthusiastic advisors, teachers, helpers.

We want to thank them for helping to make our years here at Medford High memorable and most of all fun.

Dedication

A man with a keen interest in his students and a contagious enthusiasm, for learning, Mr. Bradley is our choice for this class's yearbook dedication. In his twenty years of teaching here at Medford High School, he has given to his students the best of himself; now we want to give him our sincerest thanks.

With the exception of one year, Mr. Bradley has been teaching at Medford High since 1953. He came here from the University of New Hampshire, where he majored in Zoology. He has since done graduate work at the University of Massachusetts, Wesleyan, Tufts, Boston College, and Yale University. His one year away from Medford High was spent teaching at Westport High School in Westport, Connecticut.

A resident of Winchester, Mr. Bradley is very active in civic activities and, in fact, serves as his precinct's representative at the Winchester Town Meetings.

Inside of school or out, Mr. Bradley is a dedicated and most involved man. For his time, his efforts, and his patience, we the class of 1973, thank him most sincerely and we proudly dedicate this 1973 yearbook to him.

“To everything there is a season,
and a time to every purpose
under the heaven.”

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

A time to be lost,
A time to be alone

A time to reach out,
A time to have faith

A time to be strong,
A time to strive

A time and a place . . .

... to be together.

A time to be yourself

enjoy yourself

To the Class of 1973: We, the Blue and White Editorial Staff, hope that the 1973 Blue and White brings you happiness in remembering your years here at Medford High. We'd like to thank sincerely Mr. James Sweeney for his hard work and help because without it, this book would not be a reality for the Class of 1973.

To the Class of 1973:

Your graduation this year will mark successfully the completion of your academic requirements of the State Department of Education for a high school diploma. Further, you will be the first one of two classes to graduate from the new Medford High School who entered school at the opening of these expansive facilities in September of 1970. You have experienced many changes during your matriculation, some of which were initiated by you as students and others in which you were actively involved.

Many new educational concepts have been realized through implementation of innovative programs both on and off campus. Adjustment and adaptation have been constant in your responsibilities as a Student Community within a Community. The open classroom concept, the establishment of student union and/or recreational center, early release of senior students, involvement with the Lawrence Memorial Hospital, the off-campus projects, the opening up of membership for girls in hitherto male extra-curricular club activities, and many other sound educational practices have been identified with your Class. Each of you is now academically qualified to advance in the career avenues of your academic or vocational preparation.

To each to all I extend my congratulations!

If you but remember not so much Where you are as What you are and not so much Why you are but Who you are, meeting daily challenges in the future will be, in my opinion, less difficult regardless of any problems, whatever their nature may be, waiting for your resolve in the days and the years ahead.

Good luck to each of you and God bless all of you!

Sincerely,

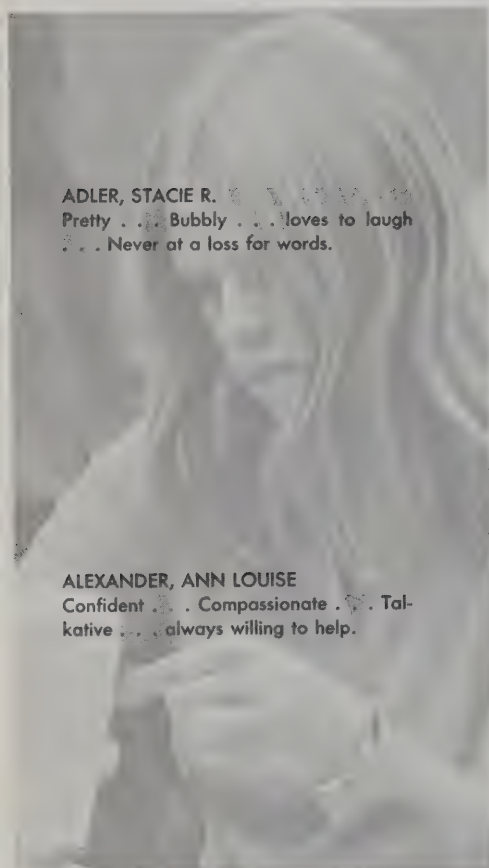

William A. McCormack

A singular accomplishment is to be one of the fourteen girls who represent Medford High School as its cheerleaders. In the spring prior to their senior year they must practice for tryouts three times a week. Their presence is required at all Mustang varsity contests. Weekly practices are mandatory. They have the responsibility of teaching the cheers and routines to the junior aspirants who will succeed them next year. Enjoyable, exciting, truly demanding — the senior year for a M.H.S. cheerleader.

"Great Expectations!" This was the feeling which abounded about the 1972 Mustangs following the near championship season of a year ago. These feelings were heightened as the Mustangs rolled over Boston Latin in their debut. The team got two touchdowns apiece from Mike Colonna and Marty Doto. (Babe Colonna's scores were indicative of his scoring prowess as he was to become one of the leading scorers in the state.) The defense, led by Nunzio Marino, Ron Russian, Bob Moore, and Rick Zaccardo, did its job. Sweeping victories over Chelsea, Somerville, and strong North Quincy continued hopes of an outstanding year. In these three victories, the defense played outstandingly by holding the opposition to a combined total of six points.

The lofty aspirations were crushed in the next contest, a heart-breaking 6 to 0 loss to bitter rival Everett. A scoreless deadlock was averted when an errant Mustang pass was intercepted and brought back 100 yards by the Everett defender. Two successive losses to Newton and Revere followed, and all hopes for title considerations disappeared.

The Mustangs bounded back from these frustrations by defeating a tough Quincy foe 27 to 15, with Doto and Colonna scoring two touchdowns apiece. All thoughts were now turning to traditional Thanksgiving opponent Malden.

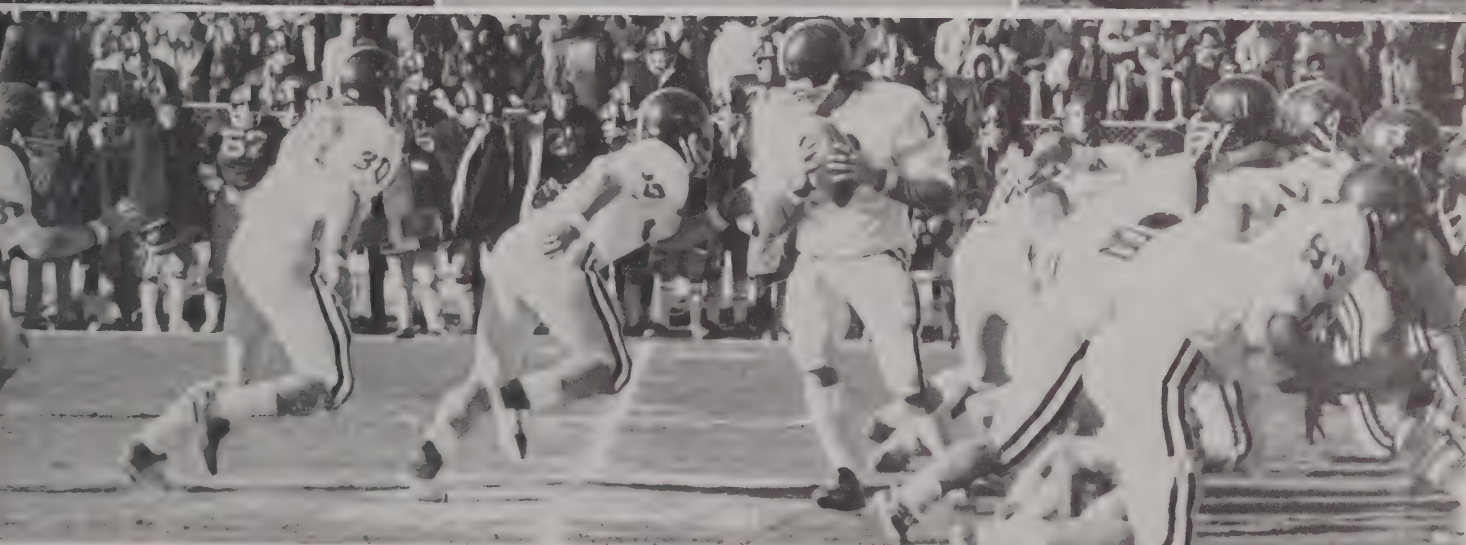

THANKSGIVING 1972

The Mustangs might have had their frustrations throughout the season; but on this holiday, before a shivering crowd of 10,000 at Malden, they were not to be denied as they routed the Malden Tornados 38 to 19, handing them their ninth consecutive loss of the season. Scoring came from Mike Colonna, who scored a record 5 touchdowns, and Art Ventresco, whose foot accounted for the extra points and a 41 yard field goal. The defense had a field day as well as Rich D'Orsi and Jim Petrillo intercepted passes to freeze two Malden drives. Rick Zaccardo recovered a fumble, and Nunzio Marino blocked a punt that set up one of the Mustangs' scores.

Congratulations to Coach Caraviello, his assistants, and all the members of the 1972 squad for a satisfying winning season and a job well done.

Summary

The 1972 soccer season was extremely successful as it saw the Mustangs qualify for the Eastern Mass. tournament. This was the first time since 1967 that the M.H.S. booters had qualified for the playoffs.

The Mustangs got off to a slow start as they were tied by Arlington in a scoreless game that was all defense. After beating Cambridge Latin 3 to 0, the Mustangs again went scoreless in a tie with Brockton. The only loss of the season suffered by the Mustangs followed at the hands of B.C. High, 3 to 0. The Mustangs would remain undefeated for the rest of the season.

The Mustangs enjoyed outstanding goal tending all season long with Bob Mahoney and Lenny Osborne in goal. The versatility of Medford's scorers was demonstrated in the Brookline game as the Mustangs shut out their opponents on goals off the heads of Mike Bordanaro and Peter Fusco. Truly the Mustangs were defensive oriented as time and time again, the defensive efforts were responsible for victory. Typical was the necessary shutout pitched against Newton by Bob Mahoney with the only goal being scored by Mike Bordanaro, the 2 to 1 win over Somerville, and the tournament-clinching win over Rindge Tech, 3 to 1.

The playoffs started on a good note as Medford tipped Falmouth on a game decided in overtime on corner kicks. But then the string ran out on the Mustangs as they met defeat at the hands of a very strong Diman Voke club 6 to 3, despite two goals by Mike Bordanaro and one by Tony Sgro.

Commendations to the coaches and players of the 1972 Mustangs, one of the most competitive teams to represent M.H.S. in recent soccer seasons.

In their second season of competition under the guidance of Coach John Regan, the M.H.S. wrestlers achieved the respectable record of three wins in their seven matches. The Mustangs were led by the performances of co-captains Marty Doto and Tim Sweet, who won 10 of their 14 matches in the 177 and unlimited classes, respectively. Very prominent roles in the team's progress were played by underclassmen Ed Conway, Keith Smith, Wayne McCullough, Gary Lofgren, and Tony Aliberti. It looks as if the Mustangs have "turned the corner" in only 2 years of competition. Well done!

Both of the last two named swimmers qualified for the East. Mass. Diving Preliminaries.

Captained by John Morey, the Mustang indoor trackmen ran to a third place finish in the G.B.L. winter schedule. Needing a win in its last meet of the season to finish above the 500 mark, the Mustangs prevailed against a tough Revere foe, 44 to 42. Consistent point scorers for the Mustangs were Greg White in the high hurdles; Vin Palazzo in the 50 yard dash; Mike Haywood and Vic Wright in the 300; and Ron Breen and Bob Minchello in the 600.

The Medford Mustang skaters started the season with great confidence and hope of a tourney position, but that hope was in question as the Mustangs dropped two crucial games against two very weak teams. They lost to Everett 1-0 and to Chelsea 2-1 as they were coming down the stretch. The Mustangs rallied and kept their tourney hopes alive as they tied Revere 1-1 and beat Everett in their last game, 6-2. The Mustangs finished their season on a winning note and brought their record to a fine 12-5-3.

The team was led by Co-Capt. Kevin Hanlon and Pat Mahoney. The captains and Mike Flynn did the bulk of Mustang's scoring, which won Medford a position in the tourney for the third straight year. The standouts on defense were Bob Devoe, Bob Mahoney, goalies Jim DeSimone and Jim Sabbag. As the Yearbook goes to press, the Mustangs prepare themselves to meet a very strong and aggressive Melrose. Best of luck in the playoffs and thanks for a great season.

Hats off to the champions! Amassing a near perfect season of 17 victories and only one loss (in its last game of the G.B.L.), the Mustangs compiled the best record in the annals of modern-day M.H.S. history. Led by co-captains Warren Belden and Paul McGrath, and under the very astute coaching of Don Tremblay and Bill Cotter, this team truly epitomized the concept of team effort. Balanced scoring, determined boardwork, tenacious defense — these were the contributions individually and collectively which made the Mustangs an awesome force in the G.B.L. this season.

The rebounding and scoring of Lino Reid and Paul McGrath, the ceaseless hustle and defense of Dave Clayton and Trevor Lee, the floor game and direction of Warren Belden, Harry Bauld, and Steve Krasker — all of these were, of course, significant. But in a larger sense, to single out any individual on this TEAM would be to slight ten others. How else does one explain shutting out Somerville in its own gym for one whole quarter?

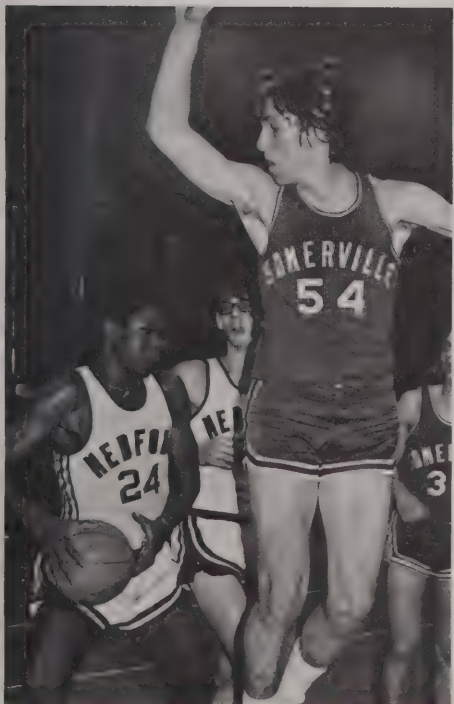

Congratulations once again to our champion Mustangs and best of luck in the forthcoming state tournament.

Led by the play making and high scoring ability of Co-Captains Mary Murray and Joanne Browne, the varsity girls' basketball team achieved their third successive winning season under Coach Julie Doherty. The Co-Captains, the only seniors on the team, provided the leadership and incentive for this inexperienced team of underclassmen. The steady improvement of high scorer Diana Furey, a freshman guard, junior forwards, Carol Williams and Pat Murphy, sophomore center Laura Tucci, and an abundance of freshman and sophomore guards make next year's prospects even better.

The emphasis of the Student Council, this year, has been placed on Student's Right and their related responsibilities. The Council has been attempting to provide students with their deserved academic freedom, while trying at the same time to impress upon them the importance of consideration for others, when exercising these important rights.

We have tried to promote student awareness and involvement in matters directly and indirectly concerning the students.

Ultimately, the aim of the Student Council has been to create a better place for kids to go to school.

The 1973 Blue and White Staff has expended every effort to give the class a worthy compilation of the activities of the students at Medford High School. The introduction of a design cover, a completely different approach to the faculty section, the biographical index, the personalized capsule on each member of the class, the extensive coverage of athletics, all these and more represent many hours both in and out of school preparing this book for you. We hope you like it. Special thanks go to Mr. Donnellan and his typing class, Nancy Kruzick for her work on lay-outs and typing, Joe Paradiso for his photography work, and Nancy Tower and Richard Fette for their cover design.

Ski Club

It may have been an uneventful winter for some, but for the Medford High Ski Club, the magic word was snow, or more precisely, Mt. Snow! On their weekend trip to Vermont in January, the skiers were hit with two days of perfect skiing. The atmosphere and warm fireplace were a pleasant retreat, as students watched the continuous snowfall.

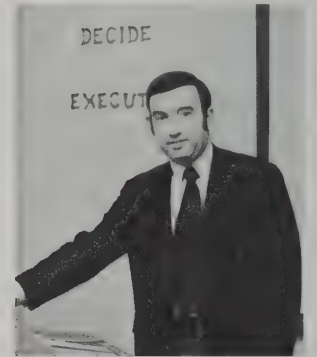

Though the weather hindered most local skiing, a big event for some of the members was their February trip to Innsbruck, Austria.

It's been a good year for the Italian Club and if enthusiasm does not dwindle to a precious few participants, the club may yet produce a free trip to Italy for a lucky winner. The scope of the club is to awaken interest in the Italian club as it has been proliferated successfully in the United States in the fields of art, music, architecture, and many other related contributions. The North End of Boston, has provided the club with a pleasant and interesting experience to be renewed at regular intervals. The open market, the cafe shops, the music stores, pizza parlors, and the profusion of constant pedestrians speaking Italian is the answer to the prayer of any language club.

We hope that in the future the club can develop other activities so as to supplement successfully the academic with the human interest of the study of the Italian language.

Modern Dance Club

Autumn leaves . . . dance begins, an artful pose . . . leaps and lunges . . . jete, frappe, arabesque and ballet baires . . . artistic softness . . . Swan Lake and Nutcracker . . . esthetic images of self-discovery . . . creativity is born. A soft melody . . . a primitive beat . . . arising crescendo . . . the reality of it all.

Bright lights spotlight our Spring Concert . . . mirroring reflections of dance.

CONGRATULATIONS STEPHANIE STAPLETON

Retirements

The close of the 1979 school year marked the close of the teaching careers of three Medford High School faculty members, each of whom provided meritorious service to the city's educational community for many years. It is with mixed feelings of both happiness in their achievements and sadness in their leaving that we cite their retirements.

Mr. Ralph E. Keene, a graduate of B.U. in 1939 (Bus. Ad.) and Tufts College in 1941 (M.Ed.), taught briefly in the Medford Public School system (1941-1942) before leaving for military service in January, 1942. Following his army service and three years on the faculty of Nasson College in Maine, Mr. Keene returned to Medford in 1949 as a member of the Business Education Department at M.H.S. Except for further military service in the Korean Conflict, (1950-1952), Mr. Keene has served the students of M.H.S. for the past thirty years.

Mrs. Louise L. Tello is another retiring member of the M.H.S. Business Education Department. She served her students well for a period of over thirty-five years with dedication, sincerity, and great expertise. A graduate of B.U. in 1938 (B.S.) as well as Tufts College in 1952 (M.Ed.), Mrs. Tello began her service in the Medford Public Schools in 1941. During her long career, she symbolized in every way the term "A truly professional school teacher."

George P. Sullivan, after graduating from Harvard College in 1938 (B.S.) and from B.U. in 1940 (M. Arts), began his service in Medford at the Roberts Junior High School in October, 1941, where he served as a teacher of mathematics for many years. In 1967, he became Audio-Visual Supervisor for the entire system. With the opening of the new M.H.S. in 1970, Mr. Sullivan continued his position at the newly opened school, where, in 1975, he became Media Administrator for the Medford School system. His talents considerable, his presence refreshing, and his influence deep, Mr. Sullivan closes a long, outstanding career of service to Medford's educational community.

In closing, we extend to these three outstanding teachers our best wishes for many years of continued health, happiness, and good fortune which they so richly deserve.

The Mustangs of veteran Coach Fred Knox finished their season as the "best non-tourney team in the state" with 13 wins in 20 contests. Erratic early-season performances dimmed the team's championship aspirations but not its spirit; the team won its last five games, including a 21-9 thrashing of G.B.L. champion Somerville. Captained by steady third-baseman Joe Centrella, the team received outstanding pitching from Keith Vienneau which included his second high-school no-hitter, a 2-0 whitewash of Peabody, breaking a team losing streak of four straight. Vienneau pitched eight of the Mustang wins this spring. Offensively, the Mustangs were led by the timely hitting and the speed of second-baseman Craig Martorano and by the longball hitting of versatile Rick Riley. Congratulations to the Mustangs and to Coach Knox on still another winning season in Medford's proud baseball tradition.

The Mustang lacrosse team finished its most successful season in a long while by breaking even in its 14 games — 7 up and 7 down. Co-captained by Chuck Hurst and Bob Botelho, the team proved to be a very highspirited, most competitive adversary to all its opponents. Botelho's inspirational leadership resulted in his breaking the M.H.S. scoring record when he amassed a total of 55 points on 31 goals and 24 assists. Seniors drawing praise for their season-long fine performances were John Conway, Neal O'Hara, Lisa Flannery, John Kennedy, Tim Woods, and Joe Sevelitte. Hats off to first-year Coach Kevin MacLean and his squad on a fine season.

Captained by Lauren Boudreau, Maria Galanti, and Holly Mootrey, the girls' tennis team broke even in its 12 matches with a 6-6 record. The team received consistently good singles performances from Ruth Kaplan, Lauren Boudreau, and Robyn Hardy while the doubles team of Maria Galanti and Holly Mootrey formed the best combination in the G.B.L., losing only once in twelve matches. Congratulations to first-year coach Sandy Cuthbert and her squad on a successful year at the nets.

Captained by top singles player Henry Risman (8-4), the boys' tennis team broke even in its G.B.L. slate with 6 wins and 6 losses. Certainly Coach Paul Jodice's squad was not favored by "Lady Luck" — all 6 losses came by 3-2 scores. Top performances were provided by the undefeated G.B.L. All-Star doubles pairing of Phil Maffa and Paul Kurker. Congratulations to a very spirited, most competitive group of M.H.S. courtmen.

CLASS HISTORY — FRESHMAN YEAR

As summer ended and September once again arrived, we found ourselves walking up the hill to the new Medford High School. With anxieties, tensions, and a bit of curiosity we entered the high school for the second time.

The first time we had all met was in the cages that past June, where we had been formally introduced to our submaster, Mr. Donovan, our assistant submaster, Ms. DePasquale, and our advisor Mr. Ozoonian. Mr. Donovan then informed us of the rules and regulations of the school and the consequences if we did not abide by them. Many first impressions of our new submaster were that he was really mean. He was a man to fear and he was out to get us. It wasn't until we matured some and got to know he was really our friend. He wasn't out to get us but to guide us in the right direction. "Thanks alot Dan."

After our stern lecture we were wished "Good Luck" and told to behave. We were then taken through the school in groups of 10 by upper classmen. But that was three months before and we were now re-entering the school with no one to show us which way to go. It was like entering into a massive maze full of too many stairways, hallways, and classrooms.

If you were then one of the lucky ones, you made it to your homeroom. There you were issued a map and locker. The map wasn't very much help because not many people can understand "blue prints" and with the thousands of lockers in the school, how were we supposed to find just one.

Well after a few minutes of trying to figure out our maps the bell rang to go to class. Panic swept through the hearts of many of us as we stepped into hallways of chaos "which way to this room?", "How do you open this locker?", and "I'm lost again" were common phrases heard throughout the halls. If you were then discouraged enough to ask another student for directions, you were never quite sure whether you'd make it to the classroom or end up in the janitors closet.

The first week seemed like an eternity of confusion and discouragement, but as the year progressed so did our confidence and courage.

Our elections were held in November and to help guide us through our first year we elected President Tony Scavongelli, Vice President Teresa Dorazio, Secretary Barbara Sherman, and Treasurer JoAnne Modica.

Apart from the first week and the cancellation of the Freshman Dinner Dance the rest of the year was an enjoyable experience.

When we first walked through those doors back in September, four years seemed like a life-time and before we realized it, the year had come to an end.

We were now out for the summer and were determined to make the next 3 years even more enjoyable and exciting than our first.

CLASS HISTORY — JUNIOR YEAR

As we began our junior year, our first thoughts were that we were upperclassmen at last. Driver Ed books were carried by everyone and we would no longer have to sit in those boring classroom studies. Before we had a chance to get settled, an unfortunate incident occurred in which racial disturbances rocked Medford High forcing the closing of the school. The incident was extremely upsetting to the school as well as the community but, thank God, we had the capacity to resolve it ourselves.

Now many changes had to be made. Security officers stopped students asking to see their I.D.'s. Open campus ended and "controlled campus" began. Time Magazine didn't do us much good either. The cover story, "High Schools in Trouble" was an article that touched mainly the negative side of Medford education and purposely left out the positive.

Despite the year's somewhat negative beginning, class advisors Miss LaHaise and Mr. Ozoonian were busy planning activities for the year. The Junior Disco was held at the American Legion Hall in early November. A semi-formal was held on St. Patrick's Day at the Malden Moose. With the tremendous success from these events, plans were being made for the prom.

School clubs and organizations were in the midst of busy seasons. The Ski Club visited Bolton Valley, Vermont for a weekend trip. The Orchestra held an exchange with Gilford, Connecticut and the Chorus held one with Sanford, Maine. The Drama Club presented "South Pacific." The Mustang News won All-American and Columbia Press Honors.

As for the sports scene, the football team rose up on Thanksgiving Day to defeat Malden 35 to 6 even though no one was sure if Coach Caravella would recover from his fall at the rally. The hockey team made the tournament and the baseball team made the finals. However, the female teams proved to be superior, winning the GBL in both tennis and gymnastics.

Our Junior Year was the year that "Misty" Mallard made her home in the courtyard and became the proud mother of nine ducklings. And who will ever forget the great blizzard of '78? Medford High was buried! That winter extensive absences plagued the school due to snow and faulty wiring.

As the year was drawing to a close, many juniors had jitters about taking their first S.A.T. The National Honor Society inducted 65 juniors chosen for academic leadership. Marshalls and ushers were selected to aid the seniors at Class Day and Graduation. Now came the highlight of the year — The Junior Prom. It was held on May 12 at the Hillview Country Club in North Reading. A good time for all, a night that will be remembered "Always and Forever."

With fond memories of a dynamite year, the "Class with Class" could look forward to an unforgettable senior year.

CLASS HISTORY — OVERVIEW

During the past four years we have experienced the portion of our life known as high school. It began with our freshman year. We suddenly found ourselves in a giant maze with about four thousand students and a staff of about two hundred fifty adults. Needless to say one of our first experiences was getting lost. However, we soon learned the ins and outs of Medford High. Next, we began seeking out various clubs and activities. By the end of the year we were pretty well adapted to the high school, its teachers, its classes, and its clubs.

Our sophomore year brought a new dimension to our high school life. It was at this time we had our first successful class function — a dance at the Old Medford High School Gym. With this under our belts we headed for bigger and better things. Our next function was at the American Legion Hall. Students came in couples or in groups of friends, but they came. It was here that we met our very own class mascot — a Panda Bear. This was to be a key role in the development of class spirit.

Next came our junior year — the year of our first prom. It was held at the Hillview Country Club. However, something else was going on in our junior year. Questions were beginning to form. What will I do after high school? Do I want to go to college? But these questions were just the beginning.

After a summer to mature, a noticeable difference could be seen in most students. They were seriously looking at their future. But our senior year was not all work and no play. We had many class functions; one of which was a Christmas Party at the Holiday Inn. No one will ever forget Mr. Ozoonian leading lines of dancing students all around the dance floor. Our Senior Prom was held at the Sheraton Hotel in Boston. The mixture of Disco and rock proves to be unbeatable. This was one of the last times we would meet together as a class.

As high school ends, we enter the next part of our life. We may travel different paths in the future, but we'll never forget our past at Medford High.

CLASS HISTORY — SOPHOMORE YEAR

September 7 found our class back to Medford High, returning this year as sophomores. We could now sit back and laugh at the freshmen as they got lost. We wondered how anyone could be so awkward because we were certainly more sophisticated as freshmen.

At this time we were introduced to our second class advisor, Ms. Sharyn LaHaise. She was to stay with our class for our remaining three years portraying our class spirit through the pictures she took at all our functions.

The beginning of the year was the time for the sorority initiation. This was a time where you may have seen some of your classmates dressed outrageously, lying on the ground playing airraid or just singing their sorority song.

We held our first function as a class on February 11. It was a disco dance at the Old Medford High. The outcome of the dance was to be a foreshadowing of the total class enthusiasm of other functions to come.

As winter came so did the snow and other problems. A water main breakage, which was the biggest problem, and the snow gave us a few extra days of vacation. But we were soon back to school as the weather changed, as it seemed to rain for weeks inside the cages.

The year was now coming to an end when we held our second class function. It was a dinner dance, May 6, at the American Legion Hall. If you came with a date or just with a bunch of friends, this function was a success and very enjoyable. At this function we also met for the first time our class mascot. He was a black and white panda bear who sat about 4 ft. tall with a red ribbon around his neck. He was to appear at all our class gatherings in the future.

The seniors soon left, and we were now full fledged upperclassmen. Well, those of us of course, who were able to pass. We all looked forward to our next year as Juniors at Medford High.

CLASS HISTORY — SENIOR YEAR

"We're seniors now and we're gonna rule the school!" is what was passing through the minds of many Medford High School seniors as the doors opened the first day of school back in September. It was all said in jest but as the year progressed it became reality. It wasn't actually ruling the school, it was more like achieving dreams the Medford High School could only have thanks for the class of '79.

The achievements started back in our underclassmen days but seldom got the recognition it deserved. But as they say, "It's the foundation of a building that keeps it standing" and with the help of Ms. LaHaise, Mr. Ozoonian, Mr. Donovan, Ms. DePasquale and Mrs. Manchington our class of '79 will stand forever.

With the joyous first day of school came the many hectic days to follow. With many seniors having to make decisions what their future depended on. "Should I go to college?" "Should I go out and work?" "What college is best suited for me?" and "Will I be accepted?" were common questions being asked by seniors. This made for a very tense beginning of the end.

After many college applications were sent, the seniors started to enjoy their senior year by starting it off with the "kick-off Disco Dance", September 30. This gave us a chance to put down our worries and dance the night away.

Although many students had finished their college hassles many were still in the midst of it. Many of us taking last minute S.A.T.'s will never forget, "Thanks to Mrs. Caron", having to concentrate on Math and English while listening to "Blueberry Hill!"

As the year progressed, it seemed easier and easier to have a good time. Who would have thought on October 28 that the crowd down the Old Medford High School gym were Senior Students dressed to kill in their Halloween costumes. It had been a long time since they had gone out for Halloween but nobody can say the older kids didn't enjoy this Halloween better than any other kid. It was exciting enough just seeing Mr. Ozoonian decked-out in his Good-Humor Suit.

As fall rolled around Medford High's football team made its first big boom! Winning game after game. With the great leadership of 3 fine captains Franz Eberth, Tony Pasquale and David Castignetti. The football team went undefeated to become the G.B.L. champs and to go on to win the Superbowl, December 2. This was a time of excitement not only in the lives of Medford High School football players but in the lives of every Medford citizen.

After having our spirits lifted by the superbowl championship there was no end to the excitement of the Senior Class. Somehow Superbowl spirits turned into Holiday Spirits.

The class of '79 showed its spirit at the Christmas Party — December 15 which was held at the Holiday Inn in Peabody. With the appearance of Santa Claus went the disappearance of our class mascot — The Panda Bear. Due to this mysterious kidnapping, Mr. Ozoonian had a long and quite drive home seeing as he had no Panda Bear to carry on a conversation with! When school resumed on Monday, Mr. Ozoonian was reported being seen frantically running through the halls grasping the "Famous ransom note". The kidnappers not able to bear seeing a grown man cry, safely returned the Panda Bear to him.

The winter months had passed and our excitement was still climbing ever so high, with the winning of the state diving championship by our famous diver, Andrew Pallotta, who later went on to become the #1 diver in New England. See you at the Olympics Andy!!

Time had passed and we were now ready for the annual Sadie Hawkins Dinner Dance. This was a big chance for most girls because they got the opportunity to ask the guy of their dreams to a dance. It was held March 9 at Stephen James House Cambridge. It was a very successful event.

As spring bloomed once again — so did the hearts of many seniors. April 11 was the Senior Banquet, held at Chateau DeVille in Saugus. This was a time to cherish for it was one of the very last times we would gather together as a class.

As quickly as the banquet left the prom arrived. Our emotions were torn between excitement and sorrow for we finally realized this would be the climax of the class. Girls in their beautiful gowns and guys in their sharp tuxs gathered in the main ballroom of the Sheraton Boston on May 10. It was the most memorable event to be given by the class.

It seemed only yesterday we came to Medford High School as young boys and girls and now we're leaving as mature men and women. We had our good times with many more to be seen in the future.

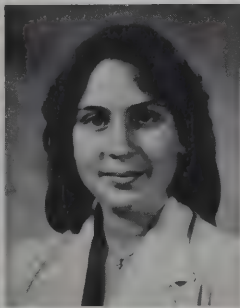

We will always remember our class. Because we are THE CLASS WITH CLASS!

Class Oration

As we look back on our four years at Medford High School, each and every one of us has experienced success in some way. This success was the result of hard work and determination. In the years to come each of us will discover that determination is essential in succeeding in the world. A determined person is the one who will get ahead. He does not sit back and wait for things to break the right way for him. A determined person goes out and makes sure that they do. All the talent and education in the world are no substitute for determination and persistence.

The cornerstone of determination is that of friendship. Having the support of people who you love and trust, sometimes helps to smooth over the rough edges. It takes a special friend to help you realize your goals and to share your burdens. High school was the beginning of many such friendships that will hopefully last a life time. But life does not allow such perfect endings so we must hold in our hearts, the fond memories of those who have grown so dear to us.

In closing, I would like to wish the Class of '79 the best of luck in the years to come and to thank you all for being the best.

Daniel Grinley

Class Poem

"SENIOR PASSAGE"

The doors close on you for the last time.
The sheltered life that went before, now passes
And you are advancing through a new doorway
One leading to the rest of your life.
The years ahead may be important ones
As the basis for a good future.
The antics that went before must now pass
And you should move toward your new horizons.
In these years you must set your course
One leading to success.
Also finding peace and happiness along the way
The goals most people strive to reach.
So step through those doorways for the final time
And start in the direction of your future.

Class Prophecy — 1979

We come today not to hurt or offend
Now that our high school years have come to an end.
By these prophecies no harm is meant
They are just reminiscent of good times spent.

Fred Murphy is our Senior President
He always has a friendly greeting.
But who knows where his time was spent,
He never seemed to show up at the meetings.

Joe Centrella is a little different from the rest,
But is always rated as one of the best
And he was the Senior Class V.P.
We see him succeeding in whatever he wants to be.

Debi Orlando has been our Secretary for the past three years
For the Class of '79 we know she cares.
If the future is to be foretold,
The key to Scott's heart will never be sold.

Our Treasurer this year was Michael Riley
Who is liked by all, and regarded highly.

Mark Sullivan only has one ambition —
To grow up and become a crooked politician.

Jimmy Casey was awarded "Macho Man"
But why this is we'll never understand.

We'll see Linda Bert dancing through the door
Of her favorite disco, Studio 4.
In twenty years when disco's old
Linda will still have her shake, rattle, and roll.

In future years we do foresee
A professional lacrosse player — Lisa Flannery.

Ellen and Walter are such an odd pair
Maybe they'll last another year.
Listen, Ellen, tell us all,
Doesn't Walter drive you up a wall?

Gino Cardarelli who is loved by all
Is wished the best of luck at B.C. next fall.

George Taylor, so suave and debonair
You wonder why the girls won't come near.
Despite his gifts and all his sweet talk
The girls just tell him to take a walk.

For Connie Chitopoulos we do foresee
A lifetime career at the Bakery.

Kevin Donovan has many voices
The future for him holds many choices.
With his impersonations he'll go far
Or spend his life telling jokes in a bar.

Next Year at U. Mass Kathy will miss
Her high school sweetheart Frank Petras.

Sharon Cenci has been struck
With Cupid's Arrow, in love with Tuck.
We predict they'll be getting married soon
And drive off in a Monte Carlo on their honeymoon.

The lifetime dream of Mark Berlihy
Is to someday reach 6 foot 3.

Paul Mulcahy thinks he's cool
But his only talent lies in the pool.
With the girls he thinks he's great
But we all know he doesn't rate.

Winky Catanzano is so wild and crazy
She's just the opposite of her sister Tracey.

Billy Baker thinks he's the best
He's always been a flirt.
He's always trying to show off his chest
Maybe someday he'll button his shirt.

Sue Cheney seems so shy,
But the people who know her, know it's a lie.

The hyper award goes to Renée Lanzilli
Who jumps around and acts so silly.
Her unique personality is never phony
But who is stranger, her or Tony?

A question for Aaron, who is known as Yo:
Why your eyes are always red, we'd like to know?

Even though Buddy's a football star
With Marie around he won't go far.
With Marie's constant talking there is no doubt
That someday his football will end up in her mouth.

Clare Colorusso would make the perfect wife
If only the right man would come into her life.

Bob Botelho had some fun
When he went to school with a water gun.
His blind shooting gave quite a surprise
When he shot Mr. Donovan right between the eyes.

Estelle and Steven wanted everyone to know
How they kissed under the mistletoe.

Gina and Linda are always together
Laughing and giggling with nothing better.
Flirts they are and flirts they'll be
Until the day they decide to marry.

The Couple of the Year as we already know
Is Jimmy Dente and Diane Gentuso.
As last year's theme was "Always and Forever"
Jimmy and Diane will always be together.

You know Tricia, Andrew's wife,
What a boring way to spend a life.

Tony Pasquale's a great football player,
To say the least.
With Teresa at his side
They'll look like "Beauty and the Beast."

Greg, Paul, and Keith will not be missed
We'll remember them as high school terrorists.

Tony Miller had to shout
When he asked Donna Marino out.
To see Donna quiet will never happen
Because her mouth is always yappin'.

Elaine Villanucci is fully equipped
To get Jimmy Keshian totally whipped.

Every senior class has a clown
But who needs one with John Whatley around.
Tapping people on the shoulder is just one of his pranks
Though who could forget his obnoxious ranks.

Liz Reid's personality is usually stable
Till the Senior Banquet when she danced on the table.

Stephen Tolland should be taught
How not to be such a space shot.
Stephen's really gentle and kind
But sometimes we think he's losing his mind.

In the future we do foresee
A mad scientist of Al Cappanelli.

The girls in C2B we cannot forget,
They were always sneaking a fast cigarette.
Since they found it so hard to say good-bye
They're returning next year as security for Medford High.

Bernado Caiani has such a low voice
For the Godfather Part III he'll be the number one choice.

Ray and Roseann were a good looking sight
When they were crowned King and Queen on Senior Prom Night.

Class Historians:
Janet Spinney
Cindy Querze
Margy Nicholson
Karen Morey

Making "Good Business Decisions" at Bentley next year
Ricky won't be happy unless Ellen is near.
With his good looks, personality, and smarts
Ricky could break many girls' hearts.

Liz Dullea had a fight with her Mom
When she wore a tux to the Senior Prom.

Joe Sevelitte who is "Jock of the Year"
Will spend the rest of his life at the fish pier.
When it's time to eat breakfast, lunch, or supper
The first one in the kitchen is always Bubba.

Timmy and Tracey are such a cute set Their senior year together they'll never forget.

Mr. Donovan is our senior Submaster
No other class could make you age faster.
We appreciate all the work you've done
We hope with your next class you'll have more fun.

Miss DePasquale is our Submaster's
Assistant
With our class she's been more than efficient.
With disciplinary action you've done your best
After these four years you deserve a rest.

This special lady really rates
Her spirit has made our class great
Every day she holds the fort together
Mrs. Manchington, we'll remember you forever.

Mr. Ozoonian, who is affectionately called "Zoot"
Has helped us out in the past four years.
Our mascot's kidnappers he wanted to shoot
Cause he was going to start a family of Panda
Bears.

Our other Class Advisor is Miss LaHaise
Who helped us out in our high school days.
She always had a hand to lend
Miss LaHaise will always be our friend.

Now it is time to leave Medford High
We all know how hard it is to say goodbye
We'll look back on these years without strife
We the prophets wish you all a long and happy life.

Salutatorian's Address

"Reaching Toward Fulfillment"

Tonight's graduation marks both an ending and a beginning, a time to look backward and a time to dream about the future. While tonight's excitement may distract us from our dreams, they will return when the celebrating ends.

Our hopes and aspirations are as diverse as we who hold them. Despite our varied dreams, a common desire for personal fulfillment does exist. It is the motivation for both the person pursuing medicine and the person pursuing auto mechanics. The striving for fulfillment exists for the business tycoon or the cosmetologist. It pushes with equal force the person motivated by money and the person spurred on by service. To the student fulfillment may lie in his long awaited diploma — for the proud parents it may lie in their child's graduation. While one person found satisfaction in the Presidency of the United States, another found her fulfillment upon recognition at the 1979 Medford High Science Fair.

Our sense of fulfillment is based on individual interests — interests dictating career choices. With only a half-hearted effort toward fulfillment, a gap may occur in time where we find ourselves asking, "What if I had done this," or "What if my life had been different?" This void may widen to a point where we will become discontented with our lives and in turn with ourselves. To avoid this dilemma, our reach should exceed our goal. While we may never attain these new heights we will have a better chance of achieving our original goal.

The means to achieve our goals are up to us. Though outside resources such as education, both formal and informal are available they are only stepping-stones. Equipped with these resources, we still must work as long and as hard as necessary.

Despite the setbacks we will most definitely encounter along the way, we must try with unconquerable perseverance to reach toward fulfillment. In this effort, I wish all of us, the best of life.

Valedictorian's Address

Mutual Responsibility

At birth each of us unknowingly accepted the responsibility to love, trust, understand, and care for his fellow man. This responsibility imparted the necessity of our giving as well as our taking, and provided us with principles from which we could seek guidance. On this graduation evening we must remind ourselves of our common obligation as we reflect upon the years past and as we ponder the future.

Recalling our four years at Medford High School, can we say that we have successfully fulfilled our obligations or rather must we admit that we have opted for a less difficult path, one uncluttered by responsibility and involvement? All of us have heard, at one time or another, unflattering remarks about Medford High, and some of us may have even contributed to the negative attitude, but how many of us have tried to correct and improve our image? Medford High School gave us the space to expand, develop, and achieve both academically and socially. Did we take full advantage of the opportunities available, and have we demonstrated our appreciation by giving a little of ourselves in return?

Let us focus our attention away from Medford High and consider the world in which we will play a more active role. A growing wave of apathy has swept over our own nation where we encounter empty voting booths and a decline in voter registration. A civil war in Rhodesia and the vengeful executions in Iran vie with the nuclear arms race for front page newspaper coverage. Vietnamese refugees with empty outstretched arms wait to be welcomed while human rights remain a question to be argued rather than a statement to be declared.

I appear to be foreshadowing a dim future for us all, but that is not the message I am trying to convey. We cannot complain about our government, ridicule our president, and then refuse to cast a ballot. We are not an isolated country, unaffected by the decisions and actions of other nations. Our responsibilities include making our ideas and beliefs known and then taking a stand to protect them. Our concern should extend not only to those close to us, but to all people.

Working together, we have the ability to remedy many of the injustices. We must no longer ignore the needs of our fellow man. If we care enough to reach out, if we take the time to become involved, we can look forward to lives filled with much happiness and success. We need only fulfill the responsibilities given us.
